

October 24, 2025: On the Nazi's End-Game

Truly, I cannot keep continuing with this ongoing pattern of abuse that I am suffering under the weight of Donald Trump's 'Murican Machine of Nazi Injustice. I have a life to live and I am refusing to allow their team any more space than they continuously rape out of our home on a daily basis.

I am supplying you with their end-game as they reach the end of America: the Great Gatsby.

They are currently building the 'big tent' for their party that will hold power as the country burns itself through the next great depression. Prepare yourselves and, for God's sake, do something to help prevent it!

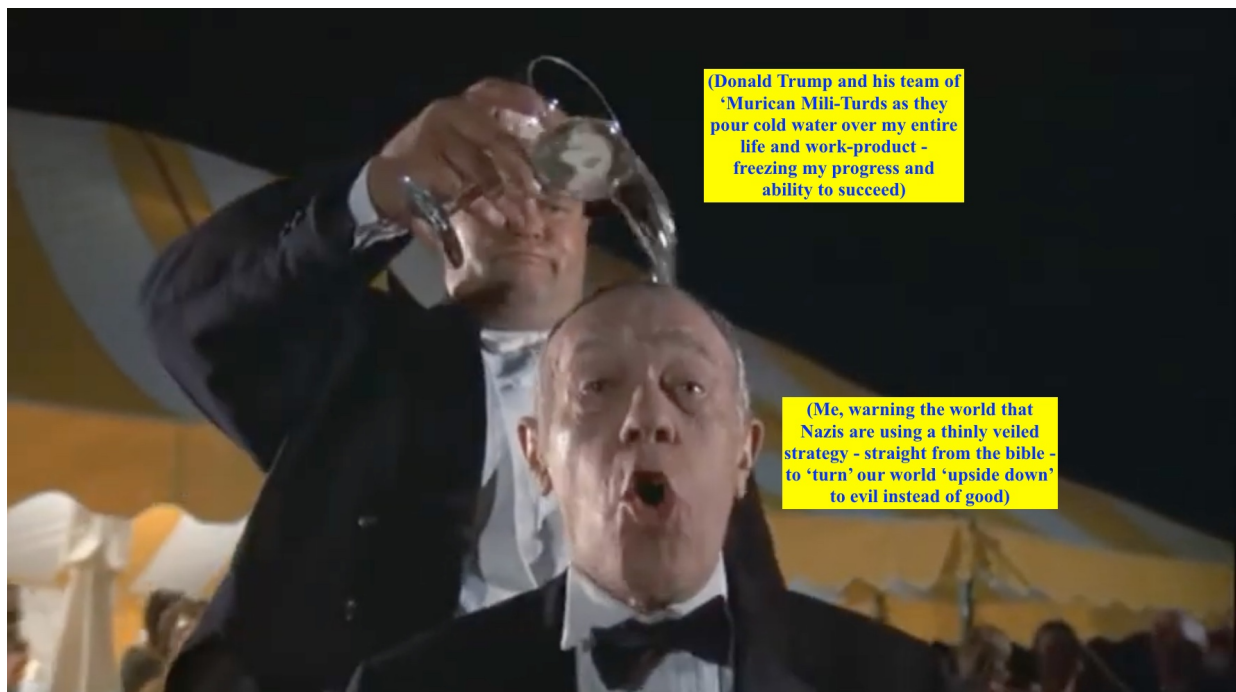

As the end of American spending begins to unfold across the world, the 'biggest and baddest' companies are being invited to 'invest' into the next great world that they are promising to create. Please note that their 'next great world' is even worse than the one they just destroyed but that is beside the point.

The point is: the 'upper upper class, high society, god's gift to ballroom notoriety' is about to begin the change into 'dirty deeds, done dirt cheap.'

The team is assembling inside of Trump's new ballroom. That team is going to be the group of Nazi insiders that can 'not see' any of the world's problems as they barrel on past us into the next generation.

Their 'party' will distract themselves from their own horrible deeds and their party will enthrall the public to watch and be amazed by their glamour and glitz. Meanwhile, the next 'great depression' will be taking root in America - and this time - it will be for the final end of what we thought was America. The party will end, the guests will wake up on the floor wondering what happened last night, and the hangover will force the world to puke its guts out in the toilet before laying down to battle with a long headache.

Mark my words, I was there. I watched it all transpire - America is dancing to the 'steps' of a Nazi Party right before my eyes.

(Donald Trump and his team of 'Murican Mili-Turds as they pour cold water over my entire life and work-product - freezing my progress and ability to succeed)

(Me, warning the world that Nazis are using a thinly veiled strategy - straight from the bible - to 'turn' our world 'upside down' to evil instead of good)
